RE: Copyright and Trademark Infringement Warning

We are providing a warning to all Niche Product Sales, LLC prospective customers about current copyright and trademark infringement.

Be advised of other companies, such as Power Barrow, who we are currently taking legal action against for infringing on our product and design rights.

We want to inform you that purchasing a product from Power Barrow after the courts decide we have full rights will create the following issues.

Power Barrow will be restricted from:

- Upholding warranty and service
- Providing replacement parts or accessories
- Selling, marketing, or producing an infringing product

Your awareness and protection is very important to us. For any questions or issues please call upon us to help you.
